Re: Accommodation Request for _____

Address: _____

Dear _____,

I am a person with a disability as defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Fair Housing Act (FHA), and Wisconsin's Open Housing Law. This means I have a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of my major life activities. My disability stops me from _____.

Housing law makes it illegal to discriminate against protected groups, including people with disabilities, in housing. This means housing providers can't refuse to make reasonable accommodations (changes in policies, practices, or services) which may be necessary for someone with a disability to use and enjoy their housing. Providers can't charge extra fees or deposits as a condition of giving a reasonable accommodation.

I'm writing to ask for a reasonable accommodation so I can use and enjoy my home. The accommodation I am asking for is _____.

I'm including a statement from the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), which goes through housing providers' duties under the FHA.

Please respond to this letter within the next ten business days. Please note that housing providers must respond promptly to a reasonable accommodation request. Let me know if you have any questions or concerns. You can call me at _____ or email me at _____. Thank you for your time and help with this.

Sincerely,
